

Hawaiian Evening Planned For AHS

The Albany Veterans' Memorial Hall will be decorated like a Hawaiian night club Thursday evening, May 30th, when the Albany High School Music Department presents its annual Cabaret Concert.

The Cougar Choir and the Albany High School Concert Orchestra will provide light classics and pop selections beginning at 7:00 p.m. There is no admission charge and the public is invited.

The audience will be seated around gaily decorated tables where they will be served Hawaiian punch, pineapple upside-down cake and coffee for a small charge. Performers and waitresses will be dressed in typical Hawaiian or beachcomber fashion, and the audience is invited to come wearing their most outlandish tropical clothes. A prize will be awarded to the member of the audience whose costume best represents the true spirit of Hawaiian fun.

The Albany High Orchestra, under the direction of Ernest Douglas, will be heard in the first suite from Bizet's "Carmen," selections from "South Pacific," and from "My Fair Lady," and "Four Dances" by Kodaly. Five younger members of the violin section, Velma Ochoa, Paul Ybarra, Jim Berling, Vicky Shaw and Scot Rogers, will be featured in the first movement from Vivaldi's A minor violin concerto.

The Cougar Choir, directed by Dusty Helsbeck, will sing a variety of light and lively selections, closing with "Aloha Oe," the Hawaiian farewell song.

Summer School Tops 600 Mark

Pre-enrollment for the Albany Summer Elementary School, currently serving pupils in grades Kindergarten through Eighth, has exceeded the 600 mark.

The school, which will operate both on the Cornell School site and at Albany High School, offers a wide variety of educational opportunities from remedial through enrichment experiences.

Charles E. McCully, Superintendent of Schools, announced today that additional enrollment will be limited. Only a few more places for children in grades K-3 are available at the Albany School site, and not all course offerings for pupils in grades 4-8 are open at this time.

Interested parents should should contact Robert E. Shogren, principal of the summer school at 526-2884 or should come to the Albany Middle School office at 605 Key Route Blvd., between the hours of 9:30 a.m. and 5:30 p.m. for further information.

The summer school will be in session from June 24 through July 26. There is already a waiting list for the Cornell School site and waiting lists for the Albany High School site will be kept as soon as enrollment limits are reached.

Astrology Program

The Chabot College Planetarium in Hayward is presenting a new program, "Astrology — Stars of the Zodiac," at 7 and 8 p.m. on Tuesday and Friday evenings through June 14. The programs, presented as a community service by the College, are free to the public.

"Astrology is one of the most popular subjects today," Dr. Billy A. Smith, Planetarium director, said. "This program blends astrology with astronomy to explore the scientific origins and the legends behind the 12 signs of the zodiac."

A unique slide projection system is used to show the basic ideas associated with each of the zodiacal signs.

Although the programs are free, reservations are recommended to assure attendance on a specific date and may be made by telephoning 782-3000, Extension 415. The Planetarium is located in Building 1900 at Chabot College, 25555 Hesperian Boulevard, Hayward.

Rabies Clinic To Be Held

All forms should be brought to the clinic with completed information to assist the help, which is all volunteer, in serving you.

United Methodist Women Annual Spring Luncheon

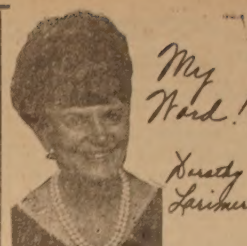

The Albany United Methodist Women will hold their Annual Spring Luncheon, Friday, June 7 at 12:30 p.m. in the Social Hall of the Albany United Methodist Church, Marin and Stannage Aves.

Mrs. Jerome Blank and Mrs. Earl Hazelton are General Co-chairmen. They are being assisted by the following chairmen heading the various committees. Mrs. Zetta Pope is chairman of the hostesses committee. Mrs. F. F. Foster will head the decorations committee. Mrs. Arlen LeGate will assist Mrs. Blank with the food preparation.

A program will follow the luncheon featuring a book review by Mrs. Richard Jones of Rossmore. She will review the book, "Fort Everglades" by Frank Slaughter.

Mrs. Clayton Berling is reservations and ticket chairman. She requests that you make your reservations before June 5th. Please call 524-4808 for reservations. Tickets are $2 and may be purchased at the door on the day of the luncheon.

Child care will be provided. The public is invited to attend. The women are extending a special invitation to local businessmen this year. Where can you get a delicious lunch for $2 these days?

GUESS LISA volunteered me as publicity chairman for this, but it's all right because it certainly is an ambitious undertaking for the final days of school. Two seventh grade classes, taught by Harrie Walker and Laura Potts, are preparing for two presentations to depict life in medieval times. On Friday, June 7, they will offer an evening's entertainment, "The Way We Were," in the AHS Little Theater beginning at 7:30 p.m. Cost is 50 cents for adults and 25 cents for those 18 and under.

On Tuesday, June 11, the classes will hold a medieval fair in Memorial Park from 1 to 4:30. The youngsters (or their others) will prepare modern recipes similar to those used in medieval times. They include deviled beef bones, Cornish pastries and fried applesauce pies. They will have authentic games and contests, beverages, etc.

Life is one conflict after another. On June 7, our press club is hosting Charles Bates, the FBI agent in charge of the SLA-Patty Hearst investigations.

EVERYONE AT Children's is getting excited about the Concours D'Elegance (showing of antique cars for prizes) at the Napa Silverado Country Club this coming Sunday. Hours are from 11 a.m. to 3 p.m. and admission is a nominal $2 for adults and $1 for children six to 12.

DOMINIC GAY celebrates the 25th anniversary of Gay's Delicatessen, next to the Times, on June 3. When he bought the property, it was an empty lot. He built the building, the shelves, the business, etc., by himself. Dom and I have something in common. His anniversary is also my birthday and wouldn't it be wonderful if THAT also could be the 25th? No way. Keep smiling!

GEOFFREY CHIN, AHS senior and son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert C. M. Chin of Albany, received $250 as a runner-up in Fine Arts in the Bank of America's Achievement Awards finals.

SUE was elected AHS junior class treasurer and I was re-elected Hospital Public Relations Association treasurer Friday. Can you imagine anyone trying to be junior class treasurer with all the headaches of raising money for senior activities?

THE ATHLETIC/AWARDS BANQUET will be held at the Veterans' Memorial building tonight at 6:30. At 7 p.m. the next night, the AHS Cabaret Concert will be held in the same place featuring Sue Gershenson, flutist, Hawaiian theme and hula dancers already. Band Day in the park is Sunday at 2 p.m., featuring the 1812 Overture and perhaps a cannon shootoff.

TWO ALBANY business establishments have been in the news lately. Morris Zinman of Zinman's on San Pablo Ave., received a plaque of 50 years' membership in Contra Costa Berkeley Lodge 1670 of B'nai B'rith. Dolly and Doug Walker received a nice writup in the Gazette Saturday concerning their Walker's Pie Shop at 1491 Solano. Didn't realize until reading the article that Dolly edits a shop publication, "Hot Stuff."

Summer Need For Teenage Volunteers

"Make life a little easier for somebody else" is the theme of the Red Cross Youth summer service program now recruiting teenage volunteers to help in community agencies this summer, according to Tara Klotz, Berkeley-Albany Red Cross Youth consultant.

Volunteers between the ages of 12 and 20 will have an opportunity to offer their services in these places: Convalescent Hospitals, the Cerebral Palsy Center, the King School for the Trainable Mentally Retarded, the Naval Hospital, local swim centers and pre-school programs.

New this year is the "Adopt a Grandparent" program in which volunteers will befriend lonely elderly people on a one-to-one basis.

Application blanks are available at Berkeley and Albany secondary schools, libraries and the Red Cross office, 2116 Allston Way, Berkeley. Appointments for personal interviews may be made by phoning 845-1430.

Orientation for volunteers will be held June 17 at the Berkeley-Albany Red Cross.

Old Eyeglasses Aid Handicapped

New Eyes, a non-profit, non-sectarian organization headquartered in Short Hills, New Jersey, doesn't ask the public for money. All that the 300 volunteers who make up the organization have ever asked for is old eyeglasses, precious metal scrap and broken jewelry.

The volunteers, most of them housewives, test and sort the plastic framed glasses and then send them on their way to be used again, often in distant parts of the world. The metal framed glasses and precious scrap are melted down and the money from the reclamation is used to set up funds in 84 hospitals in 29 states, D.C., Canada and Puerto Rico. These pay for new prescription glasses, or if needed, artificial eyes.

In addition, arrangements have been made with numerous Public Welfare Departments throughout the country whereby New Eyes pays for new glasses for needy persons who cannot otherwise afford them.

Last year 851,994 pairs of glasses were mailed to New Eyes' official address, Short Hills, N.J. 07078. Not everyone had the name of the organization right, but for those who didn't there was no doubt of the sender's intention: "For the Help of People Who Have Trouble Seeing," "Home of the Needy," "I and the Needy," "Place That Collects Glasses For The Needy," and "Needy Old Glasses."

The name is important, but the work is even more so.
